Patriotic Xmas Shoppers

Of course you are a patriotic Christmas shopper—that goes without saying. But do you know the qualifications that go with the title?

We are all going to buy sensible Christmas presents this year, with special consideration for the men we know who are in service. Thrift should be the keynote of all shopping this year more than ever before, for the government says converse, and to buy useless or extravagant gifts would be to violate that order.

The government, knowing that the merchants of the country can always be depended upon, asks that they reduce the labor situation as much as possible by employing no extra help, eliminating all special deliveries and closing the store at regular hours. With one voice the merchants assented, but they depend on your help. It won't be necessary to inconvenience yourself greatly. All the government and the merchants ask is that you distribute your shopping plans evenly over the remaining weeks before Christmas. Avoid the rush of last minute buying. You will get better service from the salespeople and fresher merchandise, and that is an inducement also, isn't it?

Neckwear With Individuality

Nothing speaks so much for the refinement of a woman as fresh, dainty neckwear. A visit to our neckwear section will convince the shopper that she can best satisfy her tastes here, where distinctive styles and high qualities go hand in hand.

A visit here will reveal many attractive styles in Vestees, Guimpes, Collars, Collar and Cuff Sets, Modesty Sets, etc., in organdie, georgette, harmonie, crepe, pique, corded cloth, and in buy useless or extravagant gifts would be to violate that order.
